Their hulls will be built of Honduras mahogany. Just what horse power the motor will be has not been decided.

S. F. Edge, an English automobilist, is building two automobile boats for the same contest. They will represent England, and will be about 120 horse power each, so it will be necessary to send from America boats of equal horse power in order to make any kind of a showing.

The motors in the Smith & Mabley boats are to be quite smilar to those used in large racing automobiles. They will be placed forward and will be operated by the men who steer.

Some months ago Proctor Smith tried out a 30-foot automobile boat of similar type on the Hudson, off Yonkers. She covered a measured mile with three men aboard in two minutes and twenty-six seconds. The models which will be sent over to compete in the race on the Eolent will be larger and heavier than that boat and will have at least four times the horse ower.

Firty students own automobiles costing from $600 to $8,000, and these will combine in turning out a record-breaking machine with which to meet other colleges. Eddle Scholl of the North End Cockederesting and exciting game of basket ball is a match between the High School Girls and the Pioneers, an independent the game and both have been successful they have played this season.

attribute this downfall to the fact that at the time they played the Carbondale team they did not have the complete line-up of regular players.

In their match with Edwardsville about four weeks ago they ran up one of the highest acores in beaket ball, which was 49 to 3. One week ago they again defeated this team by the score of 22 to 7.

The Pioneers are also very expert in the game of baskette, which is similar to basket ball, save that the field or floor is divided into three parts, with two players of each team in each section. Should a player in one third of the floor step on or over the line it would constitute a foul.

In a recent game of baskette with the Alton team, the referee, who is an expert, said that the game was one of the best he had ever seen. This was only the second game that the local girls had played, and at this rate, with more practice, they should become expert and make a reputation for themselves. They won by the score of IT to 4.

Thus far they have games scheduled with O'Fallon, Carbondale, the ladles' team of the Y. M. H. A. and the Union Club team. They practice on an average of twice a week, and are just as confident as are the High girls of winning, should a match between the two be arranged.

The High School Girls are captained by Miss Bertha Hensel, while the Pioneers are under the leadership of Miss Grace Craig. Both are experts at the game and assist the coaches in strengthening the weak points of their teams.

Miss Fannie Hurst and Miss Louise Meyers, the forwards of the High team, are both good at their positions. Miss Franc Windhorst, center, has made several pretty shots for goal in the recent games. Miss Alberta Hoffman and Miss Hensel are the guards on their team. Miss Mildred Pariera is an able substitute.

The school girls are anxious for a match with the Carlisle Indian squaw team, but it seems as though the parties at the other end are not as anxious for the game as the local enthusiasts. The girls are also making arrangements for a return match with the Troy girls and the Carbondale team. They played these teams early in the season, beat them and are eager to go at them again.
